Norfolk to Tackle Brownies. Norfolk to Tackle Brownies.

Norfolk is to play here Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week. They are seeking revenge for the terrible deteat they received at the hands of the Champion Brownies last week, and will come here with a team strengthened in many places. The Brownies will use practically the same team that was used in Norfolk, and they claim that they will not do less on local ground than they did in a strange city, with no fans to assist them.

The Valley Invincibles to Tackle | Society Out in Full Force and Brownies-Norfolk Wants Revenge, Too.

Barton Heights' well balanced team of base-ball artists will meet the nine from Staunton on the Broad Street diamond this afternoon and tussle for victory 'in the first of a series of three games. The visitors reached the city last night and were quartered at a boarding house on Marshall Street. They claim the championship of Northwestern Virginia, and their record bears them out in the asser-Thirty-four out of forty games have been won by them, and they come to Richmond with the full confidence of adding to their list of victories.

Barton Heights will place Crawford, the southpaw enigma, in the box for today's game, To-morrow Brooks will do the work of sending the sphere across the rubber and on Friday Hoskins will use his benders. Milis and Elmore may use his benders. Mills will receive Crawford's twisters in to-day's game, which begins at fifteen minutes to 5.

That a crowd will witness the opening exhibition there is no doubt. The interest throughout the city has been high since the first announcement was made in The Times-Dispatch that the aspirests for champloiship honors were comants for championship honors were com-ing to the city to tackle a team from the ing to the city to tackie a team in second Twin City League. The Highlanders are now in second place in the Richmond League and have a good show to snatch the first rung of the ladder from the Champlon Brownles. Batting Order of Teams.

Batting Order of Teams.

Batting Order of Teams.

Barton Heights will send this team against the visitors: Rose, left field; Boone, second base; Hoskins, center field and pitcher; Mills, catcher; Bache, third base; Phillips, shortstop; Tritton, first base; Taylor, right field; Crawford and Brooks, pitchers; Booker, catcher.

The visitors are said to have the best battery of any base-ball team in Virginia. Timberlake, who is to play right field in to-day's game, is a box artist and will probably be used in one of the three games. Porter, who is to pitch to-day, has the reputation of not allowing over four or five hits in any game.

Those who have watched Crawford's work this season have full confidence in his ability to hold the heavy men from Staunton down to four or five hits and the fielders will do the rest. The three games will be fought out as hard as any were ever fought on the Broad Street diamond, and the best team will carry of the honors.

the Crowd Picnic on the Ground.

(Special from a Staff Correspondent.) ORANGH, VA., July 25 .- Splendid weather marked the opening of the Orange Horse Show, and this, combined with a crowd of two thousand and well contested classes, has made this year's exhibition stand out ahead of those of former years. All the boxes and seats of the grand stand were filled, and around the show ring vehicles of all sorts and kinds were three deep.

Mr. Thomas Atkinson, first vice-president, acted as president in the absence of Mr. Du Pont, in Europe.

The officers are: William Du Pont, president; Thomas Atkinson, first vice-president; W. G. Crenshaw, second vice-president; W. W. Sanford, third vice-president; L. S. Ricketts, secretary and treasures.

At function time the crowd scattered over the lawn around the enclosure and upon the beautiful wooded filliside that serves as a picturesque background to the show grounds,

The Marine Band, of Washington, played between the classes, while every now and then a minstrel band outside the anand then a minstrel band outside the on-closure, bent upon advertisement, clashed loudly in with some hackneyed melody. Colts held the attention of the audi-ence for the first three classes, which brought out a nice lot of youngsters. Then gaited saddle horses did every-thing but read and write, and four-year-oid roadsters played their part as a pra-lude to the Thomas Atkinson class for-horses suitable to become hunters, that are owned and were bred in Orange county. county.

An Attractive Prize.

Mr. Atkinson, of Richmond and of "Rocklands," in Orange county, offers $50 each year for this class, with the provision that if no excellent individual is shown, the prize goes over and is added to the next year's purse.

No prize was awarded last year, so that the ten candidates for the class went after $100.

Blue went to a fine bay gelding, breedy looking and with a lot of promise, belonging to Noel Lynn, of Somerset. There were no other ribbons given in the class. The judging gave universal satisfaction.
